Come early in order to get good

A shocking murder is reported from Bisbee. At an early hour last Saturday morning the body of J. R. Spaulding was found in Brewery gulch with his throat cut from ear to ear. The unfortunate victim of the assassin's knife was last seen by a bartender at midnight, and according to this man's statement, a stranger appeared to be following Spaulding around. A sharp knife had been drawn across the victin's throat and the dead man's hands were covered with his own blood, as though in his death agony he had clutched at the gaping and fatal wound The identity of the murderer has not been discovered.
